Demon Cants
Demonic Will ()	+10 maximum Anima, +1 Anima spent/round; -5 minutes in alternate forms.
Manipulate Earth	You can extend your will into the earth, reshaping it as you desire. You can affect a surface area about 10 feet square (to a depth of a few inches) or a volume of about 40 cubic feet. The earth does not gain any special ability to hold its shape against gravity (for example, a narrow arch of earth immediately collapses). The earth does not revert to its original shape on its own, though weather, time and other creatures may affect the earth. The material doesn't have to be topsoil # you can manipulate rocky soil or clay as long as the material is mostly earth and the stones are no larger than a human head. You cannot trap, bury or cover an unwilling creature in earth unless the creature is helpless. You can use this cant to perform certain special attacks. Blind - You can scatter fine earth in a 10-foot cube, blinding creatures in the area for 1d4 rounds if they fail a Fortitude save DC 15 (DC 10 + your Charisma modifier). Pummel - You form a sledge or ram out of the earth, which strikes up to four targets in the area. You make a ranged touch attack against each target. If the attack hits, the target takes bludgeoning damage equal to 1d8 + your Charisma bonus. Slow - You can form the area into irregular shapes, slowing movement as appropriate for rough terrain (moving out of a square costs two squares of movement). Trip - Make a Strength or Charisma check opposed by the target's Strength or Dexterity check (whichever has the highest ability modifier). All factors that affect a trip attack (target's size, stability, extra legs and so on) apply to this check. If you win, you trip the target. If you lose, the target cannot attempt to trip you in response. You can affect all creatures standing within a 10-foot-square area. You make only one Strength or Charisma check; each target makes an individual check to resist. [Standard Action, Cost 0 Anima, Duration Instantaneous]

SPECIAL QUALITIES
Demon Anima	21 Max Anima; 2/round
Demon Heal Wounds	Heal Wounds, 10 per anima point
Racial Traits	Demons do not need to breathe or to eat.
Fear	Any creature clearly seeing a demon's true form must make a Will save DC 15 or become shaken.
Horrific Form	A demon is an alien spirit, and when it takes form in our world the spirit naturally reshapes its inanimate host material into the closest Earth-approximation of its energy self. Because the demon is from a distant dimension unlike ours, this 'natural form' is invariably hideous to behold. Each demon's natural form is unique, and those humans who know of demons' existence use these shapes to identify demons. If killed, a demon reverts to whatever inert matter its spirit used to create its body. This matter holds the last shape the dead demon had before it was killed. If you kill a demon, its corpse is a crude statue of glass, earth, wood, plastic or whatever its body was really made of, roughly approximating the demon's shape at the time of death.
Resistance to Damage	A critical hit against a demon merely stuns it rather than dealing Constitution damage., Immune to normal poisons and disease.
Shapechanging	Changing shape is a standard action that does not provoke attacks of opportunity. Demons can change shape, taking on the appearance of any human or humanlike creature (elf, lizard-man, 'little green man' alien, typical devil with horns and a tail and so on) of Small or Medium size (or Large size, if combined with the Great Stature cant). The change is only cosmetic; the demon does not get any special powers of the new form (turning into Dracula doesn't give the demon the powers of a vampire) and retains its own ability scores. The demon can even imitate a specific person (as a disguise or deception), though the change is not detailed enough to duplicate fine details such as fingerprints, voice scans and retina scans; this sort of disguise gives the demon a +10 bonus on Disguise checks to pretend to be that person. Although shapechanging is easy for a demon, it is taxing. A demon can stay in a form other than its true form for up to one hour, after which the demon reverts to its true form and must remain that way for an hour. Shorter periods of shapechanging require shorter recovery periods (equal to the time spent in another form or 10 minutes, whichever is greater). The demon can change from one human form to another without assuming its true form in between, as long as the total time spent out of its true form is one hour or less.
Tempter Ability	Once per day the demon can change someone's attitude to Helpful for one minute (Will resists).DC 15
