The diagram illustrates the calculation of a character's speed bonus. It shows a sequence of boxes representing different bonuses being added to a base value. The bonuses are:

- SUBDUAL DAMAGE: A box containing "0".
- DAMAGE REDUCTION: A box containing "3/-".
- SPEED: A box containing "Walk 30 ft."

The calculation is shown as follows:

$$\text{+ } \boxed{0} + \boxed{2} + \boxed{0} + \boxed{0} + \boxed{0} + \boxed{0} + \boxed{0} + \boxed{0} = \boxed{\text{MISS CHANCE}} \quad \boxed{0} \quad \boxed{+0} \quad \boxed{8}$$

The final result is 30 ft.

Cloaking (Appear as dirt) (6 CP). A character with Cloaking has an always-on disguise over his or her mystical and/or psychic aura, although this has no effect on normal senses. You must specify what the effect is. Cloaking is often used to make one look like a honest fellow to fool truth-detection, to alter your apparent alignment, or to disguise yourself as a member of a similar species.	[Eclipse, p.27]
Companion Gain a companion creature of your choice.	[Eclipse, p.27]
Countermagic With Countermagic you may - Counterspell with any spell of the same school of higher level than the target effect. - Use Dispel Magic and Greater Dispel Magic with a +5 bonus on the roll. - Use an unused empty spell slot of level 3+ like a normal Dispel Magic.	[Eclipse, p.28]
Countermagic / Reflexive (+6 CP) allows you to reflexively use any Countermagic technique. This is actually an example of the Reflex Training feat (page 40), but requires the basic Countermagic feat.	[Eclipse, p.28]
Damage Reduction 3/- (Corrupted not to prevent damage from non-magical weapons / natural fire) This applies to all damage sources, including magical and energy-based attacks. Characters commonly specialize it by applying it only towards physical attacks, energy attacks, magical attacks, or another GM-approved specialty. The Corrupted modifier can be added by leaving an additional common "hole" in your defenses. For example, silver weaponry or fire spells would apply to physical reduction or magic defenses, respectively. ! You may take this ability multiple times. Each time, you add another type of damage reduction.	[Eclipse, p.29]
Empowerment (6 CP). You may link your own energies with those of a charged or uses-per-day magic item in your possession up to (3+Int Mod) times per day. The item uses the highest of its or your attribute modifiers and Casting Level. The spell levels, psionic Power, and other components for the effect come from the item or from you as desired. XP costs are always borne by you. You may Specialize in a particular type of device. In this case, waive the times-per-day usage limit. If you apply this variant to Siddhis yoga talents (page 44), the effects you wish to enhance must have a particular theme. You cannot simply apply it to all of your talents.	[Eclipse, p.31]
Grant of Aid 1/day Free Action - Heal 1d8+5 hp 1d3 attribute damage or 1 negative level.	[Eclipse, p.32]
Grant of Aid / Regenerative / Slow Regrowth (+3 CP) allows the slow (1d4 weeks) regrowth of lost limbs and organs.	[Eclipse, p.32]
Legionary ~ Chosen One Gain +1/2/3 bonus to AC, Attacks and Reflex Saves when with 1-2/3-4/5+ others who have this feat.	[Drew, p.53]
Skill Emphasis (Arcana) This grants a +2 bonus on any single skill.	[Eclipse, p.44]
Spell Resistance (6 CP). The character gains Spell Resistance which rises with his or her level, rated at (5 + character level). Spell Resistance = 8	[Eclipse, p.45]
Unity (6 CP). In worlds where Psychic powers and Magical effects are treated as distinct, non-interacting forces, a character with Unity has found a bridge between Psi and Magic. This character may treat them as aspects of the same thing. This primarily means that his or her psychic powers (or magic) interact with magic (or psychic powers), including dispels or anti-magic or antipsychic fields. It also means that metamagic and metapsionic abilities are interchangeable for him or her.	[Eclipse, p.48]

The Path of the Dragon

Shaping

[Eclipse, p.92]

(6 CP). Shaping is the art of channeling ambient magic into effects. It allows the user to create effects like those produced by Prestidigitation at will. The character may not use cumulative effects or grant noticeable bonuses to anyone but may perform an immense variety of minor tricks for comfort, convenience, and amusement. As shown on the chart, learning Shaping is the first step along the dragon path.

Way of Inner Fire / Dragonfire

[Eclipse, p.93]

(+6 CP, requires Shaping). Dragonfire enables a character to convert spell levels into flame attacks, shields of energy, and the channeling of raw magical power into other beings or items as a Standard Action. Attacks do 1d6 fire damage/spell level sacrificed to a 30' radius area or 2d6/spell level to a single target. Shields cancel a total of 4 points of damage per spell level sacrificed; a character may leave a shield up and do other things, but it lasts only 1 round per spell level. Shields may be used on other characters at ranges of up to 120 feet, provided that the user can see them. Channeling energy into creatures and objects is on a 1-to-1 basis. Characters converting spells for this purpose can only sacrifice one spell, regardless of how many levels it has, per round.

Way of Inner Fire / Breath of the Dragon

[Eclipse, p.93]

(+6 CP, requires Dragonfire). While Dragonfire is normally fire-based, with Breath of the Dragon the character may make it into any energy type he or she knows of other than 'divine' or 'infernal' energy (unless the character happens to actually be a deity). Holy, Unholy, Lawful, and Chaotic energy forms usually require an appropriate alignment.

Way of Inner Fire / Eye of the Dragon

[Eclipse, p.93]

(+6 CP, requires Dragonfire). With Eye of the Dragon, a character may absorb up to (Int score) incoming spell levels each day. He or she may only store a maximum of (2 x Con score) at any one time, however. Spell levels may be expended on other Dragon Path disciplines or, for +12 CP, to power spells as per a Rod of Absorption. Unlike the Rod, a master of the Eye of the Dragon may absorb any spell which would affect him or her, regardless of whether or not it has an area effect. Eye of the Dragon may be taken up to (Wis Mod+2) times and stacks with itself. For +3 CP the user may learn to absorb magic from items. Charged items yield 1 spell level/charge drained. Permanent items yield (Caster Level/2) spell levels but are negated for 24 hours. Spells generally cannot be partially absorbed, but if the Game Master allows this it results in a proportional chance of spell failure. For example, absorbing 2 spell levels from a 7th level spell results in a 2-in-7 chance of failure (in this case use a d8 and reroll 8's).

Way of Inner Fire / Eye of the Dragon / Absorb Items

[Eclipse, p.93]

Way of Inner Fire / Venom of the Dragon

[Eclipse, p.93]

(+6 CP, requires Eye of the Dragon). Venom of the Dragon allows a character to store up to (Int score) levels of actual spells thrown at them, which they may release and use as a Standard Action even if they couldn't normally cast those spells. This only applies to "friendly" incoming spells, cast by an ally for the explicit purpose of absorption. Like Eye of the Dragon, Venom of the Dragon may be taken up to (Wis Mod +2) times and stacks with itself. The absorption limit of the Eye of the Dragon.

Way of the Wings of Fire / Kinetic Master

[Eclipse, p.94]

(+6 CP, requires Shaping). A mainstay of minor telekinetic talents, this allows the user to manipulate objects within 60 feet with an effective Strength of (Int/3). Unfortunately, skills like Sleight of Hand, which require tactile or close-up visual feedback, suffer a -10 penalty when used at range in this fashion.

Way of the Wings of Fire / Will of the Dragon

[Eclipse, p.94]

(+6 CP, requires Kinetic Master). This talent boosts the effective telekinetic Strength of Kinetic Master by +3. It may be taken more than once, but the character's effective telekinetic Strength cannot exceed his or her Intelligence.
