[Eclipse]

You have a familiar companion

Familiar

[Drew]

+4 racial bonus on saves against sleep and paralysis [DS, web]
Eldritch [Eclipse, p.31]

Exotic forces power your magic rather than relying on the usual sources. In other words, your magic may have strange special effects for free. This has no direct game effect, but gives you more style.

Innate Enchantment [Eclipse, p.34] adds innate power that may duplicate the effects of a magical item or items valued at up to 5000 GP [Currently at 5000 GP] (according to the standard d20 rules). The character must pay twice the normal experience point cost to create said item. For every +1 additional CP invested, these innate enchantments rise in value by 1000 GP.

Innate Enchantment / Detect Magic

(+700) At-will personal use at L1 caster level.

Innate Enchantment / Enhanced Attribute (+2 [Eclipse] Intelligence)

[At Will] Grants +2 Enhancement Bonus to Intelligence

Innate Enchantment / Intuition [Eclipse]

True Strike, True Skill, True Save, and True Dodge once per day each.

Innate Enchantment / Protection from Evil [Eclipse]
Protection from Evil (1400 GP). Gain a +2 Deflection bonus to AC and a +2

Resistance Bonus to Saves versus attacks or effects generated by Evil opponents and cannot be possessed or mentally controlled.

Invocation [Eclipse, p.35]

Grants one bonus spell slot usable for any spell or power you can cast up to your current spell level limit in a particular progression. This goes up with the character, so it never becomes obselete.

Legionary [Eclipse, p.53] Gain +1/2/3 bonus to AC, Attacks and Reflex Saves when with 1-2/3-4/5+ others who have this feat.

Malcolm's Orb [Drew]

Farget. One creature so that it feels suddenly compelled to give you what it is holding when you cast this spell. On the creature's next action, it moves as close to you as it can get in a single round and offers you the object as a standard action. This spell allows you to act out of turn and accept the "gift" if the creature reaches you to hand you the object [assuming you have a free hand and can accept it]. The subject defends itself normally and acts as it wishes on subsequent rounds, including attempting to get the object back if desired. Target: One swarm of little creatures carpets the effect's area, viciously attacking all other creatures there. [Roll on the table below to see what sort of creature is summoned]. A creature in the swarm who takes no actions other than fighting off the creatures takes 1 point of damage on its turn. A creature in the swarm who takes any other action, including leaving the swarm, takes 1d4 points of damage +1 point per three caster levels. Spellcasting or concentrating on spells within the swarm is impossible. A swarm of poisonous creatures deals no damage to creatures who are immune to poison, though it still prevents spellcasting and concentration. The creatures' attacks are nonmagical. Damage reduction, being incorporeal, and other special abilities also make a creature immune to damage from the swarm. The swarm cannot be fourth effectively with weapons, but fire and damaging area effects can force it to disperse. The swarm disperses when it has taken a total of 2 hit points of damage per caster level from these attacks. Certain area or effect spells, such as gust of wind, and stinking cloud, disperse a swarm immediately if appropriate to the swarm summoned. [For example, only fliers are affected by a gust of wind]. Effect. A first-caster level. 13 an explosion of flame that detonates with a low roar and deals 1d6 points of fire damage per caster level [maximum 10d6] to every creature within the area. Unattended objects also take this damage. The explosion creates almost no pressure. You point your finger and determine the range [distance and height] at which the fireball is to burst. A glowing, pea-sized bead streaks from the pointing digit and, unless it impacts upon a material body or solid barrier prior to attaining the prescribed range, blossoms into the fireball at that point. [An early impact results in an early detonation.] If you attempt to send the bead through a narrow passage, such as through an arrow slit, you must "hit" the opening with a ranged touch attack, or else the bead strikes the barrier and detonates prematurely. The fireball sets fire to combustibles and damages objects in the area. It can melt metals with low melting points, such as lead, gold, copper, silver, and bronze. If the damage caused to an interposing barrier shatters or breaks through it, the fireball may continue beyond the barrier if the area permits; otherwise it stops at the barrier just as any other spell effect does. It can ascend at half speed and descend at double speed, and its maneuverability is good. Using a fly spell requires only as much concentration as waiking, so the subject can attack or cast spells normally. The subject of a fly spell can charge but not run, and it cannot carry aloft more weight than its maximum load, plus any armor it wears. Should the spell duration expire while the subject is still aloft, the magic fails slowly. The subject floats downward 60 feet per round for 1d6 rounds. If it reaches the ground in that amount of time, it lands safely. If not, it falls the rest of the distance, taking 1d6 points of damage per 10 feet of fall. Since dispelling a spell effectively ends it, the subject also descends in this way if the fly spell is dispelled, but not if it is negated by an antimagic field. Effect: The transmuted creatures move and act more quickly than normal. This extra speed has several effects. When making a full attack action, a hasted creature may make one extra attack with any weapon he is holding. The attack is made using the creature's full base attack bonus, plus any modifiers appropriate to the situation. [This effect is not cumulative with similar effects, such as that provided by a weapon of speed, nor does it actually grant an extra action, so you can't use it to cast a second spell or otherwise take an extra action in the round.] A hasted creature gains a +1 bonus on attack rolls and a +1 dodge bonus to AC and Reflex saves. Effect: You can place another spell upon your person so that it comes into effect under some condition you dictate when casting contingency. The contingency spell and the companion spell are cast at the same time. The 10-minute casting time is the minimum total for both castings; if the companion spell has a casting time longer than 10 minutes, use that instead. The spell to be brought into effect by the contingency must be one that affects your person and be of a spell level no higher than one-third your caster level [rounded down, maximum 6th level]. The conditions needed to bring the rust be clear, at though they can be general. In all cases, the contingency immediately brings into effect the companion spell, the latter being "cast" instantaneously when the prescribed circumstances occur. If complicated or convoluted conditions are prescribed, the whole spell combination [contingency and the companion magic] may fail when called on. The companion spell occurs based solely on the stated conditions, regardless of whether you want it to. You can use only one contingency spell at a time; if a second is cast, the first one [if still exitive] is dispelled. Material Component: That of the companion spell, pus quicksilver and an eyelash of an ogre mage, rakshasa, or similar spell-using creature. Focus - A statuette of you carved from elephant ivory and decorated with gems [worth at least 1,500 gp]. You must carry the focus for the contingency to work.

□□□□□ Disintegrate DC: 22, Fortitude partial (object) Standard Action Medium (230 ft.) V,S,M/DF

School: Transmutation Effect. A thin, green ray springs from your pointing finger. You must make a successful ranged touch attack to hit. Any creature struck by the ray takes 2d6 points of damage per caster level [to a maximum of 40d6]. Any creature reduced to 0 or fewer hit points by this spell is entirely disintegrated, leaving behind only a trace of fine dust. A disintegrated creature's equipment is unaffected. When used against an object, the ray simply disintegrates as much as one 10-foot cube of nonliving matter. Thus, the spell disintegrates only part of any very large object or structure targeted. The ray affects even objects constructed entirely of force, such as forceful hand or a vall of force, but not magical effects such as a globe of invulnerability or an antimagic field. A creature or object that makes a successful Fortitude save is partially affected, taking only 5d6 points of damage. If this damage reduces the creature or object to 0 or fewer hit points, it is entirely disintegrated. Only the first creature or object structs can be affected; that is, the ray affects only one target per casting. Arcane Material Component - A lodestone and a pinch of dust.
